

Spotted Knapweed looks like this.

Invasive Species

Residents of Calumet Township:

Spotted Knapweed has invaded the Calumet Township Park! Spotted Knapweed is an invasive species that kills all the native species around it. The way to stop Spotted Knapweed is to remove it from the ground. Please help stop Spotted Knapweed from spreading and remove it if you see it.

Spotted Knapweed
(Centaurea maculosa)

GREAT LAKES
Stewardship Initiative

Expanding classrooms. Strengthening communities.

LAKE SUPERIOR
STEWARDSHIP INITIATIVE